To our Patrons.

FOR Twenty-Six Years we have been making and erecting Monuments, Tombs, Gravestones, and general cemetery work. While our field has been principally within a radius of twenty-five miles of Springfield, some of the finest monuments we ever made were put up far from the home territory. Our aim is to make our dealings and work always acceptable to our patrons, and extend our reputation by the good words that they will speak for us. We appreciate the many favors that we have received, and hoping that our work may be still better known by this little book, we remain

Respectfully yours,

MARBLE AND SLATE GRAVE VAULTS.

When these are used lots never get out of order, as the earth never caves in on the remains. Vaults for children's graves.

Epitaphs.

FATHER.

1 God is love.
2 Life's labor done.
3 Death comes equally to all.
4 Lord, I come to Thee for rest.
5 Peacefully he sinks to rest.
6 Gone to a better land.
7 To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die.
8 A Christian cannot die before his time.
9 Thou hast all seasons for thine own, O Death.
10 How blest the righteous when he dies.
11 Peaceful be thy silent slumber.
12 Free in heart and true in hand.
13 In the bright eternal city
Death can never, never come.
14 How sweet the hour of closing day,
When all is peaceful and serene.
15 If God be ours, we're traveling home,
Though passing through a vale of tears.
16 A few more toils, a few more tears,
And we shall weep no more.
17 The young and the old, the low and the high,
Shall moulder to dust and together shall die.
18 Love esteems it Heaven
To abide at his side.
19 The gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
20 Although he sleeps his memory doth live,
And cheering comfort to his mourners give.

21 He followed virtue as his truest guide,
Lived as a Christian—as a Christian died.

22 Thus star by star declines,
Till all are passed away.

23 Asleep in Jesus; peaceful rest,
Whose waking is supremely blest.

24 It is dust unto dust, and life is but a dream,
A flower that floats on the passing stream.

MOTHER.

25 Thy trials ended, thy rest is won.

26 Farewell, dear mother, sweet thy rest.

27 How desolate our home bereft of thee.

28 There is a reaper whose name is Death.

29 Resting in hope of a glorious resurrection.

30 Thy fainting soul Jesus can deliver.

31 He has called for many a loved one.

32 Our mother:
In God's own morn her orb will rise,
Once more a star of Paradise.

33 She was—but words are wanting to say what,
Think what a wife should be, she was that.

34 How sweet to lay our sainted dead,
In such a place to sleep.

35 Thou art gone to thy grave;
We no longer behold thee.

36 In that bright and glorious city
We shall evermore abide.

37 Sleep thy last sleep
Free from care and sorrow.

38 She hath seen her happy day;
She hath had her bud and blossom.

39 That perfect rest naught can molest,
Where golden harps are ringing.

40 Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
Thy head upon My breast.

41 Earth has no sorrows
That heaven cannot heal.

42 Mother, thou wast mild and lovely,
Gentle as the summer breeze.

43 In vain the tear, in vain the heart-felt sigh,
All who are born to live are born to die.

44 Both old and young, O Death, must yield to thee,
And day by day thy powerful arm we see.

45 Sleep, oh sleep!
The shepherd guardeth His sheep.

46 The gates of Heaven for her shall open wide.

47 Jesus is the truth, the way that leads you into rest.

ADULTS.

48 Death loves a shining mark.

49 Secure in Jesus' love.

50 Ne'er more may we behold thee.

51 Thou no more wilt join our number.

52 Those who knew him best loved him most.

53 Peaceful be thy silent slumber.

54 I have a peace: it is calm as a river.

55 God was thy Ransom, thy Guardian, thy Guide.

56 Bear her perfect soul above.

57 Jesus loves the pure and holy.

58 How many hopes lie buried here!

59 I have found the shore of everlasting rest.

60 Only crossed the river of death
To that beautiful summer land.

61 O for the death of those
Who slumber in the Lord.

62 A place is vacant in our hearts
That never can be filled.

63 In Heaven we'll greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.

64 There is a world above
Where parting is unknown.

65 For me, Lord Jesus, Thou hast died
And I have died in Thee.

66 Oh for the touch of a vanished hand,
And the sound of a voice that is stilled.

67 A light from our household is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled.

68 Asleep in Jesus ! Blessed sleep,
From which none ever wake to weep.

69 We shall meet to part, no, never,
On the resurrection morn.

70 Shrined in our hearts, thy memories fair
Shall reign till life doth cease.

71 There's a beautiful land on high,
Then why should I fear to die ?

72 Life is but a winter's day,
A journey to the tomb.

73 He gave thee, He took thee,
And He will restore thee.

74 Soon again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled.

75 Death has no sting,
Since the Saviour hath died.

76 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"Come unto me and rest."

77 "Tis not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die."

78 There is no fireside, howsoe'er defended,
But has one vacant chair.

79 Thou shalt have a glorious waking
When the blessed Lord doth come.

80 Death is the gate of endless joy,
And yet we dread to enter there.

81 God sends us no gift with choicer possibilities in it than are enwrapped in suffering.

82 Teach me Thy will,
And Thy rich promises in me fulfill.

83 Life is not our own—'tis but a loan,
To be repaid.

84 The debt is due—the dream is o'er—
Life's but a shade.

85 Come unto Me and I will give you rest.

CHILDREN.

86 Saved from earthly taint and sin.

87 God takes the life He gave.

88 Thou wert fair as the beam of the morn.

89 Suffer the little ones to come unto Me.

90 She was fair and good in youth.

91 Tho' lost to sight, to memory dear.

92 God's finger touched him—and he slept.

93 Weep not: he is at rest.

94 Beneath this stone, in soft repose,
Is laid a mother's dearest pride.

95 Tread softly by the grave of one
Our hearts had learned to love.

96 Sweet Willie unto earth
A little while was given.

97 The dimpled hand, the ringlet of gold,
Lie in a marble sleep.

98 A little flower of love
That blossomed but to die.

99 Earth counts a mortal loss,
Heaven an angel more.

100 The fairest bud that flowery nature knows
Oft ne'er unfolds, but withers ere it blows.

101 Whose all of life's a rosy ray,
Blushed into dawn and passed away.

102 Free from all temptation,
No more need of watchful care.

103 God needed one more angel child
Amidst his shining band.

104 Another little lamb has gone
To dwell with Him who gave.

105 Another little darling babe
Is sheltered in the grave.

106 Tender Shepherd, Thou hast stilled
Now Thy little lamb's brief weeping.

BIBLICAL SELECTIONS.

107 If a man die shall he live again? Job 14 : 14.

108 Jesus said: I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth on Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. John 11 : 25.

109 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Matt. 5 : 8.

110 Then shall the King say unto them on His right hand, Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Matt. 25 : 34.

111 An inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, and that fadeth not away is reserved in heaven for you. 1 Peter 1 : 4.

112 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. Rev. 7 : 17.

113 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil. Psalms 23 : 4.

114 What man is he that liveth and shall not see death? Psalms 89 : 48.

115 The wicked is driven away in his wickedness: but the righteous hath hope in his death. Proverbs 14 : 32.

Recommendations.

South Hadley, Mass., March 20, 1897.

Messrs. McGregory & Casman, Springfield, Mass.:

Gentlemen—The handsome Soldiers' Monument presented to the town of South Hadley by our public spirited citizen Mr. Wm. H. Gaylord, and which was executed at your works, has received the unqualified indorsement of all who have seen it.

The material throughout is good and the workmanship especially fine. That of the granite figure being so nearly perfect in every detail, the features in particular being expressive and lifelike.

Your work and the carrying out of all the details incident to the erection of such a monument was eminently satisfactory to Mr. Gaylord and the Committee acting with him.

I cheerfully recommend your work to members of the G. A. R. or others who are thinking of doing anything in this line.

Yours truly,

C. A. GRIDLEY,
Chairman of Committee.

Springfield, Mass., May 24, 1897.

Messrs. McGregory & Casman:

Gentlemen—The Quincy Granite sarcophagus which you have placed on my lot at Oak Grove Cemetery is in every way satisfactory. I feel that I can unhesitatingly say a good word to any of my friends who are needing anything in your line.

Yours truly,

SHERMAN D. PORTER.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., May 24, 1897.

MESSRS. McGREGORY & CASMAN:

Gentlemen—I have examined the beautiful monument which you have executed and placed on my family burial lot, and can only speak of it in praise. Many of my friends have seen it and all are united in praising it, in proportion, material, and fine workmanship. With many thanks for the manner in which you have designed and carried out the work, I gladly send you my check, and can cheerfully recommend my friends to you.

Very respectfully yours, MRS. THOMAS H. ALLEN.

CHICOPEE, MASS., Sept. 6, 1895.

MESSRS. McGREGORY & CASMAN:

Gentlemen—Inclosed we send you check in settlement of monument erected on Stearns & Tuttle lot at Fairview Cemetery. We are all satisfied with it. It does you credit.

Yours truly, F. E. TUTTLE.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., July 6, 1897.

MESSRS. McGREGORY & CASMAN:

Gentlemen—I inclose you my check in payment for sarcophagus placed on my family burial lot at Peabody Cemetery. I desire to express my thanks for the quality of work furnished me, and the promptness in execution, and feel confident that you can please others desiring anything in this line.

Very respectfully yours, MRS. A. M. SLEEPER.

HOLYOKE, MASS., May 24, 1897.

MESSRS. MCGREGORY & CASMAN:

Gentlemen—I have heard, much to your credit, many remarks in praise of the handsome sarcophagus placed on my lot in Forestdale Cemetery, both of its design and workmanship; to all of which I heartily subscribe.

Respectfully yours, C. W. RANLET.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., June 24, 1897.

MESSRS. MCGREGORY & CASMAN:

Gentlemen—The handsome Carved Westerly Granite Memorial which you executed and placed on my family burial lot at Peabody Cemetery is a first-class specimen of skilled workmanship and material, and in every respect to my satisfaction.

Respectfully yours, MR. AND MRS. J. M. SMITH.

HOLYOKE, MASS., May 25, 1897.

MESSRS. MCGREGORY & CASMAN, SPRINGFIELD, MASS.:

Dear Sirs—It is with great pleasure I take this opportunity to express our appreciation of the most excellent work which has been put into our monument. Every detail has been carried out to our entire satisfaction. Thanking you very kindly for your promptness and many courtesies,

I am, yours very cordially,

MISS ANNIE W. MILLER.

General Cemetery Rules

RELATING TO HOW FOUNDATIONS SHOULD BE MADE.

No monument, tomb, or headstone shall be located upon any lot without consulting the Superintendent and receiving his consent to such locations, or receiving his placement of the same.

No lot or parcel of land shall be defined by any so-called fence, railing, coping, hedge, embankment, or ditch.

The foundations of all monuments and headstones must be made of brick or stone and laid with the best of cement, and must be as deep as the bottom of the grave.

All workmen employed in the construction of vaults or tombs, erection of monuments, etc., must be subject to the control and direction of the Superintendent; and all material brought into the cemetery to be used in improving lots must be transported and deposited within the cemetery in such a manner as the Superintendent may direct; and all earth or rubbish accumulated in improving lots must be removed and deposited under direction of the Superintendent, at the expense of the proprietor of such lot, and any workman failing to conform to this regulation will not be permitted afterwards to work in the cemetery.

Lots are conveyed by special deed, securing to the purchaser, their family and heirs, a burial place forever, and perpetual care.

About Monuments.

If you are contemplating erecting a monument you will be interested in knowing some facts about them:—

Good workmanship, good material, and true proportion are the essentials of an artistic and enduring monument.

Only with true proportion can the monument be pleasing.

Only with good material can it withstand the action of the weather.

Only with good workmanship can the best beauties of the stone be brought out.

It takes from sixty to ninety days to make a granite monument worth from three to six hundred dollars.

Monuments can be lettered as well on the family burial lot as at the monumental works.

People contemplating erecting tablets for completion before Memorial day should place their orders as soon as possible after March 1, as everybody is in a hurry, and this necessarily hinders filling orders at the quarries. Winter is a good time to have work executed.

Foundations should be placed under every tablet or monument. They should be the same size square as the base, and carried down to as low as the bottom of the grave, or lower for heavy work.

If a finished monument or tablet is selected from our works we can letter and set it up in a few days.

We believe the best is nearly always the cheapest, and ever the most satisfactory.

Artistic designs are our careful study.

We have been at this stand for over twenty years, during which time we have made a great many tablets, monuments, memorials, and sarcophagi—in round numbers about eight thousand.

We believe in doing what we say.

SOME OF OUR WORK.

The figure on the D. L. Harris monument was modeled and every detail of the work executed at our works. Also the figure that stands on Mrs. Thomas Allen's family lot. We claim that the above two pieces of work are the finest and most delicate examples of monumental statuary ever executed in the city of Springfield, or, indeed, in Western Massachusetts.

How to Clean Marble.

You can remove stains from marble with chloride of lime mixed with pulverized chalk.

Or you can use lemon juice or vitriol in equal quantities for this same purpose by wetting the stain with a soft cloth.

You can remove grease from marble by placing French chalk over the stain, then holding a hot iron near enough to soften the grease so that it may be absorbed by the chalk.

Ink stains may be removed from marble by making a paste of one-half ounce of oxalic acid to one pint of water, adding flour enough to make like paste—can be spread on over the stain and left for five days.

Soap lees with quick lime mixed to the appearance of milk if left on dirty marble for twenty-five hours, then washed with clean soap and water, will clean marble nicely.

Alcohol will remove dirt, dust and specks from statuary without any injury to the statue.
